These people on the page are like those sunflowers on the canvas: striving, drooping, wilting, dying - and more than what they. God and humans do not belong in the same realm and it is therefore necessary to have a right attitude before God. Anglin Goodreads Author. Beautifullyeasytouse. The work ends with the passacaglia for solo violin, one of the most beautiful and soaring pieces of the German baroque. You can feel the rawness as soon as it starts, as a man-along with his two adult sons-strives to ensure that his wife remains serene after a stint in rehab for morphine addiction. An enthusiastic proclamation of a higher humanity pulsates throughout much of his work. Next to it is a Late Gothic bell tower from the 16th century.
