The Tenement

In short, only when we were together did he feel entirely serene, confident, even about what he wrote, after he had read it to me and had seen in my eyes - rather on your mouth, he would say, when my lips, pouting a bit at first, opened slightly... almost a smile, no, not yet, but... I would prune his words, of course - excessive, immoderate and magnanimous as he has always been, he lavished words profusely and I pared them for him, discarding the rind, the core and even a lot of the pulp, when it was necessary.
